BYRDMANCO PRESENTS A LAFAYETTE SALON FILM "BRANDO'S SPOON" JANE CORTNEY WILLIAM TATLOCK GREEN EARLE HUGENS
MUSIC BY ASKOLD BUK & STEVE WILLIAMS EDITED BY CHRIS WRONKA DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY PETER PAVLAKIS WRITTEN BY JANE CORTNEY DIRECTED BY MAC BRYDON

LOGLINE

Two brothers at odds bicycle across New York City in hopes of locating a beloved family heirloom.

SYNOPSIS

Sky and Brando's mother had one obsession:
Marlon Brando.

After her death, Brando (Green) inherited Stella, her prized houseboat. Sky (Hugens) got The Wild One's utensil, bought at auction. When Sky loses his beloved family heirloom to Brando's ex Lola (Cortney) in a late night poker game, he begs his estranged brother to help rescue it. The two bicycle through Manhattan in a quest to get it back . . .

but Lola has something up her sleeve.

OUR STORY

Immediately upon wrapping our last film,
we were discussing what to do next.

*'Let's make a bike film.
Two brothers. Bicycles.
Riding thru NYC!'*

The wheels began to spin . . .

PRODUCTION

The Manhattan locations fell into place.

A rooftop and wine cellar in Hell's Kitchen.
A house-boat at the 79th Street boat basin.
West End Avenue was our racetrack.
