LOGLINE

A film critic's interview with a mercurial Hollywood actor pushes her to confront both artistic and personal fears.

SYNOPSIS

Film critic Anna is given the writing assignment of a lifetime, one that could revive her milquetoast career.

Her husband, Reg, an origami master, is racing against the clock to create pieces for a big competition.

Meanwhile, Hollywood star Lorelei struggles to adjust to New York City. Though she's attended to by her devoted assistant and confident Dexter, when Lorelei is interviewed by Anna for a starry magazine, things get hairy.

PRODUCTION

The Manhattan locations fell into place.

The Bowery, Cooper Triangle Park and a private residence in the East Village.

OUR STORY

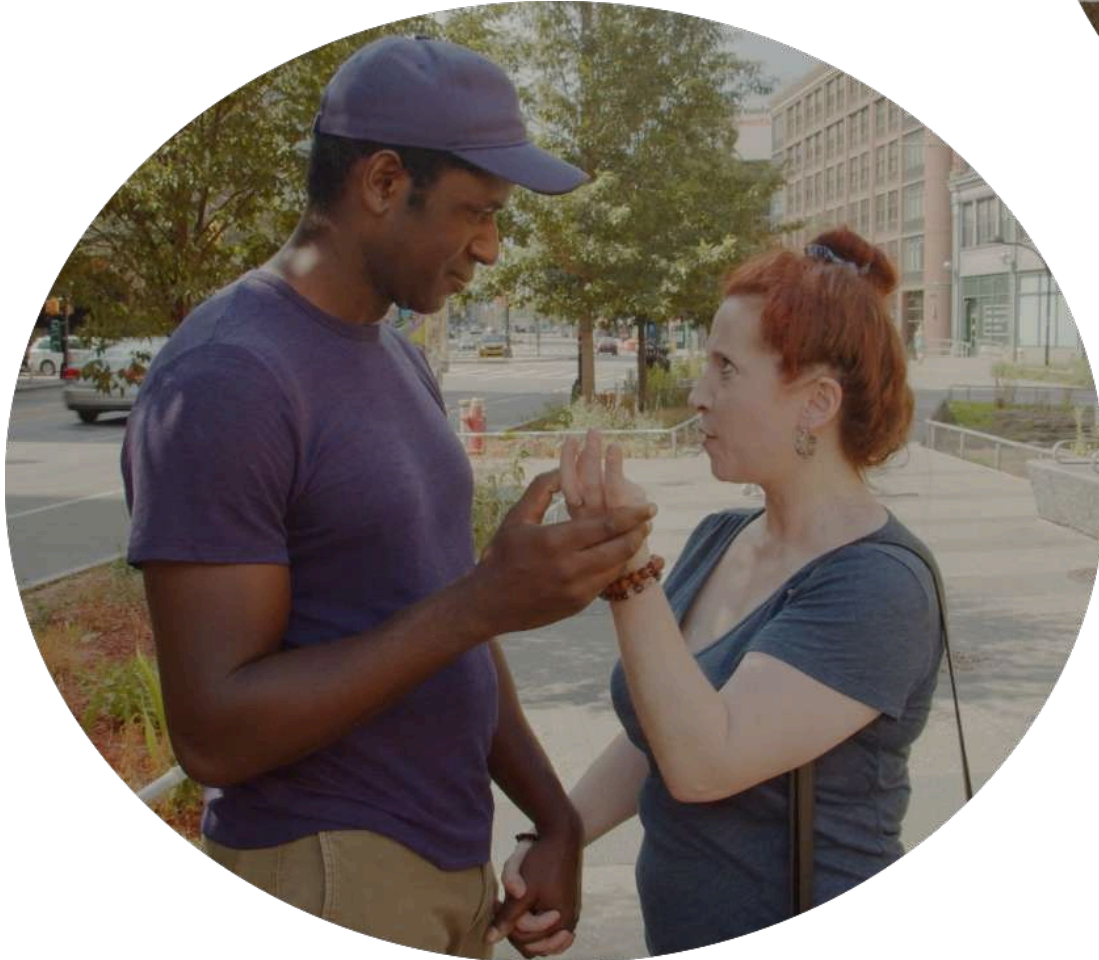

A Reunion, pesky neighbors, a road picture, a magical tea-kettle, literary teasing and now . . .

HOLLYWOOD meets NYC
We've gone to the dogs . . .

JANE CORTNEY
